

Figure 8. Silk tree (Albizia julibrissin) is considered a salt sensitive species. Overhead irrigation with recycled water containing 200 mg L^{-1} sodium and 300 mg L^{-1} chloride results in chlorosis and light brown necrosis on the tips of leaflets of the compound pinnate leaves (left).